Kurian Joseph, J.

This Court is extremely happy to note that a long pending dispute between the parties to a marriage has been amicably settled between them, thanks to the strenuous efforts taken by the court and effective conciliation made by the learned counsel Smt. K. Girija.

2. The parties have been living separately for the last eight long years and on the suggestion made by the court after the conciliation, the parties have been now living happily together. Smt. Rajeena, her father and Sri. Sujith who are present before this Court submit that all the cases can be closed since they have forgone and forgotten the past and have decided to have a happy and prosperous life.

In view of the submission as above and recording our appreciation for the sincere efforts taken by the counsel appearing for both sides for settling a family dispute and also for the efforts taken by Smt. K. Girija, these cases are closed.
